Special Presentation

In September 2018 the UN began formal negotiations on the new, legally binding, amendment to the UN Law of the Sea, covering “Biodiversity in Areas Beyond National Jurisdiction (BBNJ)”.

The session will brief the shipping industry on the status of the BBNJ negotiations, the risk/impacts for shipping and the need/opportunity for shipping involvement, in coordination with other ocean industries. Make no mistake, the Law of the Sea’s new BBNJ requirements will have serious implications....This is an opportunity to engage and protect your business investments.
